a
After a first top-journal paper, new awards accrue about a fifth more often, as they did before it
Before the paper (months −24 to −1):
22.8 against 18.7 per 1,000 (+22%)
Cumulative incidence of a new lead award per 1,000 papers
60
50
40
30
20
10
0
45.4
35.5
First top-journal paper
Matched comparison paper
0
12
24
36
48
60
72
84
Months after publication
b
In no window up to seven years did the relative lead grow
Linked awards
Corrected for detection
Risk ratio after the paper / risk ratio before it (log scale; 1 = no widening)
1.5
1.25
1
0.75
Months 12–35
Months 36–59
Months 60–83